Dear Sir or Madam

I am delighted to let you know that Brunel Law School is offering a Summer Academy from the 27th of June to the 5th of August. The Summer Academy is an intensive programme covering various areas of law. All courses taught in the Summer Academy will have a significant focus on research and legal skills, critical thinking and reasoning. I would be most grateful if you could forward this information on to your members, and am happy to provide you with any additional information you require.

Participants can choose from any of the following options:

27 June – 1 July 2011:	International Human Rights Law in the New Order
4 – 8 July 2011:	Contemporary Issues in International Criminal Law &amp; Procedure
11 – 15 July 2011:	European Union Law in a Comparative Context
18 – 22 July 2011:	Intellectual Property Law in the Global Economy
25 – 29 July 2011:	International Financial &amp; Economic Law
1 – 5 August 2011:	International Trade Law

At the close of each course, participants will have gained valuable knowledge in the legal discipline they chose to attend. They will be provided with helpful course materials and a certificate of attendance to the programme.
