

Judge (Rtd) Steven Plotkin. Judge, Court of Appeals, 4th Circuit, elected in 1988-2002; Judge, Civil District Court, 1979-1987; J.D., Tulane University; LL.M., University of Virginia; Honorary Order of the Coif; Past President of New Orleans Trial Lawyers Association; Adjunct Professor of Law teaching Louisiana Torts, and Co-Director Emeritus of Trial Advocacy, Tulane Law School; Adjunct Faculty, Harvard Law School; National Institute of Trial Advocacy; author of twenty-seven legal articles and books; host of the television series, "It's the Law".

John W. deGravelles is a practicing attorney with extensive experience in international and domestic maritime tort law. In 2001, he was named a Fulbright Scholar and taught maritime private international law at the Aristotle University School of Law in Thessaloniki, Greece. He is a member of the Adjunct Faculty at Louisiana State University Law School. He is a Past President of the Louisiana Trial Lawyer's Association, a Past President of the Louisiana Chapter of the American Board of Trial Advocates and a Past Member of the National Board of Governors of the Association of Trial Lawyer's of America. He is a member of the Maritime Law Association and is past chairman of the Admiralty Section of the American Association of Justice (formerly ATLA) and is a Fellow in the International Academy of Trial Lawyers. He is a partner in the firm of deGravelles, Palmintier, Holthaus & Frugé.

Richard J. Dodson. (J.D., Louisiana State University) is a member of the Louisiana Trial Lawyers Association, American Bar Association, and the Maritime Law Association of the United States. He has taught courses in admiralty and offshore personal injury litigation at Southern University Law School and in Tulane's Summer Session in Greece and has also lectured widely in maritime law seminars.